

The Ball Street Journal

issue 7

The PROVINCETOWN CLASSIC Special Edition

In honor of our 23rd year of the Provincetown Classic, we decided to try out the 23 and Me DNA test... we used our Wigs and Heels pictures from prior years though and something must've went wrong because it turns... out we are ~~100% that BFF...~~ 50% kinda cute, 50% kinda busted. Can't change your past though, only your future (as I pat my weave and beat my mug for this year).

Anyways, in this edition of the BSJ we are giving you all the details on our favorite friendly tournament of the year (biased). Plus, information on Fall Ball and upcoming social events, so be sure to put your glasses and R E A D.

...in this edition

Strikers Events

Dear Daddy

PTown Classic Details

sips tea

PTown Classic Montage

Follow for Follow

bostonstrikers.com

I put a spell on you...

...and now you'll come to all of our upcoming Strikers events

Free Ball Fall: Soccer Sundays

Every Sunday September through October (except 10/13 and 10/20)
Danehy Park, Cambridge, MA 2pm-4pm

Sundays are free for all Strikers players, all skills welcome! (That's why it's free ball fall... so yes, please wear your undergarments).

Proud to Play Boston 2019 Block Party and Gay Games

Saturday, September 21st

Cathedral Station 3pm-8pm

'Fun Filled Day of Games' block party hosted by The Boston Alliance of Gay Sports

The Strikers are doing a 50/50 raffle so show your support and come mingle with some cute Boston jocks.

Event Details: Facebook

The Provincetown Classic

Register on our website: <http://bostonstrikers.com>

Early Bird registration $90 | Regular Registration $110 | Guest Registration $45 ($65 w/ gift)

Included in Registration:

- Waived cover at all events (Opening Party, Late Nights (x3), Tea Dance)
- Some tournament / Strikers swag*
- Soccer and Lunch all day Sunday*
- Closing Banquet Dinner

*Indicates not included in guest registration

Early bird discount through September 11!

Weekend Schedule

Opening Party @ Underground Bar

Come play with us at Underground where we kick off the weekend with all sorts of games: pool tables, air hockey, ping pong... Mingle with old and new friends as we cheer to a fabulous weekend ahead!

Late Night @ A-House

We'll end up here each night (if you can last).

Music, flashing lights, sweaty bodies... It's a no brainer.

A little bit of history for you... some consider A-House the oldest gay bar in the country due to its appeal to "alternate life stylists" dating back to the early 1900s.

Beers and Bros @ Provincetown Brewing Co.

A new face in Provincetown the Provincetown Brewing Co. Perfect place to grab a cold one and meet up with friends new and old while you are walking the streets of PTown in your down time.

Wigs and Heels Tea Dance @ The Boatslip

This is our 6th year of our Wigs & Heels Tea Dance so we expect you to WERK. I'm talking NAILS HAIR HIPS HEELS. This is your grand entrance. This is your runway. Get 10s hunny.

Soccer Balls Dance Party @ Wave Bar

Balls balls and more balls. They love to host us for a great party each year with dancing and drinks. Kudos if you're still in your wigs and heels, but you may want to pull a wardrobe change and give your feet a rest before soccer...

Soccer

No time to nurse your hangovers Sunday as we are on the pitch bright and early with a full day of soccer. All skill levels are welcome! We'll split everyone up into teams and you'll play a mix of small sided (6v6) and full field (11v11) games throughout the day. Lunch is included.

Banquet

Like any good gaycation with friends, there needs to be a family dinner. We'll eat lots of food, drink lots of martinis, and gossip about who's done what all weekend. Oh and maybe you'll even win an award!

Dear Daddy...

You may remember me from last year... I wrote to you while lying naked on the floor, torn as to whether I'd be dressing up for this Wigs and Heels tea dance thing. You'll be glad to know, I did it! Well, kinda... I threw on a costume wig that was knotted before I left the house and wore some 3 inch pumps I stole out of my mom's closet. But baby steps, amiright? Well, more like baby giraffe steps with the way I was walking... Anyways, year 2. What kind of tips do you have for my sophomore year?
Sincerely, Natalie Imbruglia, but like... older.

Dear Natalie,

Of course I remember you... my little drag princess. This year you are ready to be a queen! Look, I'm proud of you for getting your toes wet last year, but now I want you to dive on into the fish tank. So here's my advice.

Heels: think of it like a penis. Ya know, like, it ain't the size of the boat, it's the motion of the ocean. Average is nice - like 5". There's definitely too big (ouch) and there's too small (no one is cute in flats... flat is fat). But anywhere in between works (wedge, low pump, platforms) so long as you can work that runway and strut. Believe me, you don't wanna be bragging about 8 inches and then fall on your ass every two seconds.

Wig: Take some advice from your fellow (better? no offense) pop star Queen B and "let me upgrade ya". That costume wig is cute and works for a lot of people, but if you wanna turn heads you need some quality. Check out wigtypes.com for a great selection at low cost Sponsored Post

Accessorize: When Coco Chanel said "before leaving the house, a lady should look in the mirror and remove one accessory" she wasn't talking about drag queens... So pop on some color, grab a purse, throw on some bangles, hoop those earrings, drip that necklace. Keep it cute, keep it matching, but keep it next level. It's the year of the accessory.

Love, Daddy, but like... older experienced.

Board Notes

Soccer Reminders

- Wear your shinguards PLEASE!
- It's just a game, Focker!

Show your Strikers pride and get some gear!!

Check out our team store:
<https://www.teepublic.com/user/bostonstrikers>

The Ghosts of PTown Classic Past

